In the preamble to the Election Rules published under Notn. No 6859 Mul 322.08.1 dt the 25th June 1908, it is said that "the Municl Election Rules, 1908" supersede "the Orders & Rules on the Subject."

2 In the old election rules that relating to the Bombay and Rangoon City Municipalities, the Constitution of the Municipal Councils of these two cities had been defined. (Rules I and II) whereas the Election Rules of 1908 which are of general applicability do not define the Constitution of Municipal Councils which as regards the municipalities excepting the two City Municipalities has been done by a separate notification.
